

Academic Net

The YoGoTe project needs basic research to have a good background. Academic institutions from different countries can investigate the following items: -Relations between signs and words. -Grammatical questions. -Software products. - Intercultural aspects. -Translation and interpretation. -New activities. Institutions that have already joined this network.